CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT
(Approved by the Board of Regents May 14, 2002.)

This Code of Student Conduct (“Code”) does not govern misconduct involving academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Policy on Academic Dishonesty in the University Catalog.

TENETS OF JUDICIAL PROGRAM

To regard each student as an individual, deserving individual attention, consideration, and respect.

To consider the facts fully and carefully before resolving any case.

To speak candidly and honestly to each student.

To hold each student to a high standard of behavior, both to protect the campus community, and to promote student moral development.

To contribute to the educational mission of the University by designing policies, conducting programs, and offering instruction that contribute to the intellectual and moral development of the entire student body.

I. RATIONALE

- A. The primary purpose of the imposition of discipline in the University setting is to protect the campus community. Consistent with that purpose, reasonable efforts will also be made to foster the personal and social development of those students who are held accountable for violations of University regulations.<sup>1</sup>

II. DEFINITIONS

<sup>1</sup>The University is not designed or equipped to rehabilitate or incapacitate persons who pose a substantial threat to themselves or to others. It may be necessary, therefore, to remove those individuals from the campus and to sever the University’s relationship with them, as provided in this Code and by other University regulations. Any punishment imposed in accordance with the Code may have the value of discouraging the offender and others from engaging in future misbehavior. In cases of minor disciplinary violations, the particular form of punishment may also be designed to draw upon the educational resources of the University in order to bring about a lasting and reasoned change in behavior. The underlying rationale for punishment need not rest on deterrence or “reform” alone, however.

A. When used in this Code:

1. "Aggravated violation" means a violation that resulted in or it was foreseeable that it could have resulted in significant damage to persons or property or which otherwise posed a substantial threat to the stability and continuance of normal University or University-sponsored activities.
2. "Appellate Board" means any person or persons authorized by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee to consider an appeal from a judicial body's determination that a student has violated the Code.
3. "Charged Party" means student charged with violating the Code.
4. "Distribution" means sale and/or exchange.
5. "Judicial Board" means any person or persons authorized by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee to determine whether a student has violated the Code.
6. "May" is used in the discretionary sense.
7. "Notice of Violations of Code of Student Conduct" means that students alleged to have violated the Code shall be provided with a Notice of Violation of the Code of Student Conduct ("Notice") and shall be required to report to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs within five (5) days of receipt of the Notice.
8. "Not responsible" means found not guilty.
9. "Possession" means the exercise of actual or constructive dominion over a thing by one or more persons.
10. A "Preponderance of evidence" means more likely than not.
11. "Presiding Officer" means a judicial board member with voting authority who coordinates the orderly administration of a hearing, including, but not limited to, insuring that the hearing is conducted in accordance with the Code, making rulings on objections in consultation with other board members, sequestering witnesses, and administering an oath.
12. "Reckless conduct" means action which a reasonable person should know creates a clear risk of harm to persons or property, or would disrupt the lawful activities of others, including studying, teaching, research and university administration.

13. “Registered Campus Organization” means a recognized group of persons who have complied with University requirements for registration.
14. “Remand means to send a case back to the original hearing body for additional proceedings.
15. “Responsible” means found guilty.
16. “Shall” is used in the mandatory sense.
17. “Sanction” means a penalty for a violation of the Code.
18. “Student” means a person who is registered for or who is auditing courses at the University either on a full or part-time basis.<sup>2</sup>
19. “University” means Morgan State University.
20. “University Premises” means buildings or grounds owned, leased, operated, controlled or supervised by the University.
21. “University-Sponsored Activity” means any activity on or off campus that is initiated, aided, authorized or supervised by the University.
22. “Weapon” means any object, substance or chemical used to inflict a wound, cause injury, or incapacitate.
23. “Will” is used in the mandatory sense.

III. INTERPRETATION OF REGULATIONS - Disciplinary regulations at the University are set forth in writing in order to give students general notice of prohibited conduct. The regulations should be read broadly and are not designed to define every instance of misconduct.

IV. INHERENT AUTHORITY - Charges of violating a local ordinance, state or federal law may subject the student to disciplinary action by the University when said violations occur on campus on University owned property, during an activity sanctioned by the University, when behavior on or off campus adversely affects the University’s educational mission, and/or constitutes a substantial and/or continuing danger to the safety or property of the University or members of the University community. The University reserves the right to take necessary and appropriate action to protect the safety and well being of the campus community and to protect the continuing operation of the University. The prohibited conduct identified by this Code applies to University premises and University sponsored activities. Students are also expected to respect and comply with the rules and regulations of other institutions when visiting or participating in activities on those campuses.

- V. STUDENT PARTICIPATION - Students are asked to assume positions of responsibility in the University judicial system in order that they might contribute their skills and insights to the resolution of disciplinary cases, Final authority in disciplinary matters, however, is vested in the University administration.

Additional findings of responsibility for violating the Code shall result in disciplinary sanctions.
  4. SUSPENSION - Separation of the student from the University for a specified period. A notation will appear on the student's transcript. A suspended student will be withdrawn from all divisions of the University for at least the remainder of the semester/session in progress. Disciplinary proceedings shall determine whether a charged party is responsible or not responsible for violating the Code or other University regulations. Formal rules of evidence shall not be applicable, nor shall deviations from prescribed procedures necessarily invalidate a decision or proceeding, unless significant prejudice to a student Charged Party or the University may result. Hearings or other proceedings as provided in the Code may be held before the following triers of fact, who are responsible for hearing evidence presented during a hearing and, based on that evidence, determining whether the Charged Party has committed the alleged violation of the Code:

1. VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS OR DESIGNEE
2. STUDENT JUDICIAL BOARD hears cases involving disciplinary violations of the Code. The Student Judicial Board is composed of three to five (3-5) students. The Chief Judicial Officer shall designate a presiding officer.
3. AD HOC BOARDS may be appointed by the Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee when a Student Judicial Board is unable to obtain a quorum or is otherwise unable to hear a case. Each Ad Hoc Board shall be composed of three members, including at least one student. The Chief Judicial Officer shall designate a presiding officer.

XI. SELECTION AND REMOVAL OF JUDICIAL BOARD MEMBERS

- A. Members of the various judicial boards are selected in accordance with procedures developed by the Chief Judicial Officer and approved by the Vice President for Student affairs. Prior to serving on boards, student members shall successfully complete training provided by the Office of Student Judicial Affairs.

In addition, persons making such referrals may be needed to appear in a hearing.
- B. If the Office of Student Judicial Affairs preliminarily determines that the allegation has merit and the alleged conduct is a violation of the Code, specific charges shall be drafted and referred for a hearing or disciplinary conference.

XIII. HEARING REFERRALS

- A. Notice of Violations of Code of Student Conduct - Students alleged to have violated the Code shall be provided with a notice of Violations of Code of Student Conduct ("Notice") and are required to report to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs within five (5) days of receipt of the Notice for a Judicial Conference. ### XIV. JUDICIAL CONFERENCE - In this conference, the student has the following options:

- A. Student Waiver Of Hearing When Student Does Not Dispute The Charges - When the Charged Party does not dispute the facts upon which the charge(s) are based, pleads "responsible" to the alleged code violations and executes a written waiver of the hearing procedures, the coordinator of the Student Judicial Program shall assess a sanction that is appropriate to the charge(s). The student may present any mitigating evidence at this time. The student shall be informed in writing of the action taken. Where the sanction of suspension (greater than one year) or expulsion may be imposed, then this option is not available. Where the sanction of suspension of one year or less may be imposed, a student may waive a hearing.
- B. Hearing - The following procedural guidelines shall be applicable in disciplinary hearings:
  - 1. A charged party shall be given notice of the hearing date and the specific charges against them at least five (5) days in advance.

2. The Chief Judicial Officer shall issue notices requesting the appearance (Notice to Appear) of witnesses at the hearing. Notices to Appear are issued upon the request of either party (Charged Party or the University) or a board member. Witness testimony is important to the effective administration of a hearing. Witnesses are expected to appear.
3. A Charged Party who fails to appear after proper notice shall be deemed to have failed to comply with directives of University officials, which may result in further disciplinary action pending against him/her. Disciplinary Hearings may be held in the absence of a properly notified Charged Party.
4. Hearings will be closed to the public, except for the Charged Party's advisor or the alleged victim in the particular case. Upon approval and within the sole discretion of the presiding officer, other persons may be permitted to attend. An open hearing may be held, at the discretion of the presiding officer, if requested by the Charged Party.
5. The presiding officer of each board shall exercise control over the proceedings to avoid needless consumption of time and to achieve the orderly completion of the hearing. Except as provided in this Code, any person, including the Charged Party, who disrupts a hearing, may be excluded by the presiding officer.

7. Any party may challenge a board member on the grounds of personal bias. Board members may be disqualified upon majority vote of the remaining members of the board, conducted by secret ballot, or by the Chief Judicial Officer.
8. Witnesses shall be asked to affirm that their testimony is truthful and may be subject to charges of providing false information to the University.
9. Prospective witnesses, other than the Charged Party, shall be excluded from the hearing during the testimony of other witnesses. All parties, witnesses, and the public shall be excluded during board deliberations.
10. The burden of proof shall be upon the University, which must establish the responsibility of the Charged Party by a preponderance of the evidence.
11. The presiding officer of each board shall give effect to the rules of confidentiality and privileges, but shall otherwise admit all matters into evidence that reasonable persons would accept as having probative value in the conduct of their affairs. Unduly repetitious or irrelevant evidence may be excluded.

12. A Charged Party shall be accorded an opportunity to question those witnesses who testify for the University at the hearing.
  13. An affidavit may be admitted into evidence unless unsigned or if other circumstances suggest that, it is unreliable.
  14. Board members may take judicial notice of matters that are within the general experience of University students.
  15. Board advisors may be designated by the Coordinator of the Judicial Officer. Board advisors may comment on questions of procedure and admissibility of evidence and will otherwise assist in the conduct of the hearing. Board advisors will be accorded all the privileges of board members, and the additional responsibilities set forth in this Code, but shall not vote. Board advisors are responsible to the Chief Judicial Officer and shall not be excluded from hearings or board deliberations by any board or by the presiding officer of any board.
  16. The Chief Judicial Officer may appoint a “special presiding officer” to any board in complex cases or in any case, in which an attorney advises the respondent. Special presiding officers may participate in board deliberations but shall not vote.
  17. A determination of responsibility shall be followed by a supplemental proceeding in which either party and the board advisor may submit evidence or make statements concerning the appropriate sanction to be imposed.
  18. Final decisions of all judicial boards shall be by majority vote of the members present and voting. A tie vote will result in a recommendation of non-responsibility in an original proceeding. A tie vote in an appellate proceeding will result in an affirmation of the original decision.
  19. Final decisions of all disciplinary hearings shall be accompanied by brief written findings of fact.
- XV. ATTORNEYS, REPRESENTATIVES and ADVISORS - A student may have present at a hearing an attorney or advisor who will not serve as a witness. The attorney or advisor may not speak or present the student’s case, but may provide the student with advice during the course of the proceeding.
- A. All presenters and representatives who participate in disciplinary hearings shall not:
1. Engage in conduct to disrupt a hearing;

2. Attempt to improperly influence an officer of the Office of Student Judicial Affairs, a board advisor or member of a judicial board;
  3. Fail to obey a reasonably definite and specific order by a presiding officer;
  4. Knowingly make a false statement of material fact, law or representation of the Code to other participants in a hearing;
  5. Knowingly fail to disclose a material fact in a hearing when disclosure is necessary to avoid assisting a future criminal or fraudulent act;
  6. Knowingly offer false evidence, falsify evidence, counsel or induce witnesses to testify falsely, or offer improper inducements to testify;
  7. Recklessly and unlawfully obstruct another party's access to evidence, or alter, destroy or conceal material not protected by privilege having potential evidentiary value.
- B. Representatives found responsible for violations of the provisions of this section of the Code may be suspended from the privilege of representation. In addition, the Vice President may refer his/her findings to the Attorney Grievance Commission or other appropriate disciplinary body.
- C. Appeals from decisions of the Vice President for Student Affairs regarding violations under this Code may be made by parties found responsible to the Executive Assistant to the President or designee within ten (10) business days of receipt of the letter notifying the party of the decision. Decisions of the Executive Assistant to the President shall be final.

XVI. COMPLAINTS

- A. Any participant in a hearing may refer complaints about suspected violations of the provisions of this section to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee.
- B. Within a reasonable time after such referral, the Vice-President for Student Affairs or designee will review the complaint. After review, the Vice President or designee may dismiss complaints that are anonymous, manifestly frivolous, which cannot be reasonably construed to allege a violation, or are based on hearsay alone. If it is determined that the complaint has merit, charges shall be drafted and referred for a hearing or a disciplinary conference.

XVII. STUDENT GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS - A student group or organization may be charged with violations of this Code.

- A. A student group or organization and its officers may be held collectively or individually responsible when violations of this Code by those associated with the group or organization have received the tacit or overt consent or encouragement of the group or organization or of the group's or organization's leaders, officers, or spokespersons.

- B. The officers or leaders or any identifiable spokespersons for a student group or organization may be directed by the Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee to take appropriate action designed to prevent or end violations of this Code by the group or organization or by any persons associated with the group or organization who can reasonably be said to be acting in the group's or organization's behalf. Failure to make reasonable efforts to comply with the Vice President's directive shall be considered a violation of this Code, both by the officers, leaders or spokespersons for the group or organization and by the group or organization itself.
- C. Sanctions for group or organization misconduct may include revocation or denial of recognition or registration, as well as other appropriate sanctions, pursuant to this Code.

XVIII. APPEALS

- A. Any determination made pursuant to this Code resulting in expulsion or suspension may be appealed by the Charged Party or a student found responsible to the Vice President for Student Affairs. The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee shall also hear appeals from denials of petitions to void disciplinary records, pursuant to this Code. In instances where the Vice President for Student Affairs has served as the trier of fact/hearing officer, the Charged Party may appeal to the Executive Assistant to the President or designee.
- B. Requests for appeals, including the grounds on which the appeal is based, must be submitted in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee within ten (10) business days from the date of the letter notifying the Charged Party of the original decision. Failure to appeal within the allotted time will render the original decision final and conclusive.
  - 1. If the appellant wishes to submit for an appeal, a written brief in support of the appeal must be submitted to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee with the written request for an appeal. An appeal which is not submitted in a timely manner or which does not set forth grounds for asking for such appeal shall result in a finding that the original decision is final and conclusive.
- C. An appeal shall be decided upon the record of the original proceeding and upon written briefs submitted by the parties. A new hearing with additional evidence shall not be conducted.
- D. Appellate bodies may:
  - 1. Affirm the finding and the sanction imposed by the original board.

2. Affirm the finding and reduce, but not eliminate, the sanction.
3. Dismiss the case.

E. Deference shall be given to the determinations of the original hearing body.

1. Sanctions may only be reduced if found to be grossly disproportionate to the offense.
2. A case may be remanded to the original hearing body if specified procedural errors or errors in interpretation of University regulations were so substantial as to effectively deny the Charged Party a fair hearing, or if new and significant evidence becomes available which could not have been discovered by a properly diligent Charged Party before or during the original hearing. On remand, no reference of record of the previous judicial hearing will be introduced or provided to member(s) of the new judicial hearing body, except to impeach contradictory testimony at the discretion of the presiding officer.
3. A case may be dismissed only if the finding is held to be arbitrary and capricious.
4. A decision of the Student Judicial Board shall be a recommendation to the Chief Judicial Officer. A decision altering the determinations of the Student Judicial Board shall be accompanied by a brief written opinion.
5. The imposition of sanctions will normally be deferred during the pendency of appellate proceedings, at the discretion of the Chief Judicial Officer.

XIX. DISCIPLINARY FILES AND RECORDS - Case referrals and findings of responsibility shall result in the development of a disciplinary file in the name of the Charged Party, which shall be voided<sup>5</sup> if the Charged Party is found not responsible for the charges. Disciplinary records may be reported to third parties, in accordance with University regulations and applicable state and federal law. The files of Charged Parties found responsible of any of the charges against them will be retained as a disciplinary record for a minimum of three years from the date of the letter providing notice of final disciplinary action. Disciplinary records may be voided by the Chief Judicial Officer for good cause, and only upon written petition of the Charged Party. Factors to be considered in review of such petitions shall include:

- A. The present demeanor of the Charged Party.
- B. The conduct of the charged Party subsequent to the violation.

<sup>5</sup>Voided records will be so marked, shall not be kept with active disciplinary records, and shall not leave any student with a disciplinary record.

- C. The nature of the violation and the severity of any damage, injury, or harm resulting from it.
- D. Denials of petitions to void disciplinary records shall be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee, who will apply the standard of review specified in this Code.
- E. The requirements for appeals as set forth in this Code shall be applicable.
