The Constitution of The Student Government Association of Morgan State University

THE PREAMBLE

Whereas, historically African-American colleges and universities have nurtured individuals to assume leadership in their communities, it is necessary in these rapidly changing times for this tradition to be reaffirmed.

Whereas, African-American colleges and universities throughout this nation face the threat of their demise in view of mergers, closures, inadequate funding, fraud, and discrimination, the need for concerted student action and representation is most acute.

Whereas, the students of Morgan State University recognize that there exists an acute need to develop and maintain a core of dynamic, young leadership as an absolute necessity for the collective advancement of African-American students, in particular, and mankind, in general.

Be it resolved, that the students of Morgan State university constitute the Student Government Association to provide a vehicle whereby leadership skills can be exercised through practical application in order to regulate student affairs, to advance and support the general welfare of the student body; to promote harmony between students, administrator, faculty, staff, and alumni; to ensure meaningful student participation in total governance of the University and to reinforce the academic mission of Morgan State University.

And be it resolved, that this document serves as the law under which the Student Government Association is bound. In instances not covered by this document, the Student Senate shall legislate the necessary amendments:

The Constitution
